Summary: This is a Prire (Prussia x oc) fanfic. This is about them meeting. Part one of who knows how many. This is rated T for a reason, my first romance so enjoy.

Meeting half way

This is my Prire love story fanfic which is Prussia x Ireland my oc, I know he/she has a lot of oc's others made but mine her real name is Ash Kirkland and she's fun and spunky I hope you like my Prire love story this is rated T for a reason aka kissing in it so please don't throw a fit if you read it and think it should be M, because there's no lemons or anything the most they do is get handsy and even then theres only little to no graphic detail. So please enjoy and maybe 2 years from now I'll look back at this story and see how much I sucked. **

disclaimer I don't own hetalia or it's characters I do however own the story and my ocs so please if you used this ship or my characters give a shout out to me. -Fuyu Dragneel

Ash's Pvo

When Ash woke up she didn't except her older brother in her face. "Ack Arthur what the heck!" I yelled. Arthur or England looked happy and said "Ash we're going to a world meeting today." I looked at him confused, now don't get me wrong I know all the nations and stuff like that and they know me, but the meeting our mostly guys and I have England as an over protective brother so I usually don't get to go. "What do you mean we?" I asked. He smiled and replied "I'm taking you with me, today's bring a sibling to work day." I sighed and he smiled. "Okay I'll go get ready." When he left, I walked to the bathroom and looked in the mirror. Looking back at me was a red-head with slight curly hair and a modest chest size. I'm also pretty skinny so I had that going for me. I walked to the shower and got ready.

time skip I know I suck

We were sitting in the car and I was holding my breath, I'm not usually a shy person actually I'm kinda a loud mouth so this was pretty unusual. The car stopped and I climbed out and followed England to the meeting room, where there was currently chaos in the making. So before I go into detail I'll explain who brought who, China brought Japan I wonder why Japan agreed to that, France brought Canada, England was going to bring America but he was sick so he brought me instead, Prussia brought Germany, Romano brought Italy, Russia brought Moldova(another oc) and last Switzerland brought Leichstein(did I spell that right?). Anyway everyone was yelling at each other about who brought who since all of them are independent countries I'll assume it was a fight about who was more important. Yet as soon as I walked in everyone stared, I gulped and sat next to England who was currently in a glaring contest with France. I sighed and waited for the meeting to start.

Le time Passes

During the meeting I talked to Prussia a lot he's really funny and not that I'd tell him but he's kinda cute. Anyway we talked a lot about sports and he seemed surprised that I was pretty good at sports, I can't decide if it was because of my tiny size or if was because I was a girl. While we were talking I had invited him over to my house for a movie night he agreed and we played roshambo in order to decide who would get to pick the movie he won, but I'm actually happy with the movie he said he'd bring over. After we talked, I left with England and we went home. At the house England called me down stairs when I meant him there something was off. "Arthur what's wrong?" I asked looking at him. "I'll have to leave for a while Alfred's illness seems to have taken a turn for the worse." He said to me looking as if he was debating something. "Anything else?" I asked. "Yes actually I saw you talking to Prussia early, mind him please he is known to be quite ah pervy." He replied concerned. I laughed and told him I'll be fine, after that he left and I returned to my room.

Even more time passes, you must hate me having so many time skips

Today was the day, me and Prussia hit it off when he came to watch the movie with me so today he's coming over and I already decided that I'm going to kiss him. Arthur was currently upstairs with Alfred, the latter whom was still ill and I knew he would be busy for a while. The door bell rang and I ran to answer it. Prussia was standing there smiling and I felt giddy. We walked downstairs to the game room where we watched a movie. After the movie I moved closer to Prussia and he said "Do you feel like there's some one watching us." I smiled "If there is then we'll have a witness to this, I kissed him full on the lips and he kissed me back his hands wrapped around my waist and I pushed closer to him, his hands moved up my back and..." "NOOOOOO"! I jerked away and looked towards the kitchen where Arthur was standing with a broom and shouting curses at Prussia whom was currently glaring at him as was I. "Arthur what the heck why are you screaming!" I yelled at him. Arthur stepped back and stopped yelling and said "Well I thought he was gonna... well." I glared at him and turned to Prussia and said "Follow me my room's upstairs." England looked like I hit him in the family jewels "No no no no no no, you're not doing kinky stuff up there no way you stay where I can see you."

He said bossy. "Ugh!" I grabbed Prussia's hand and we walked outside where he said "Wanna go for a drive?" I smiled and hopped in the car. We drove to a nearby field and sat down on a blanket he had in his car. "Well, where were we?" I said smiling and leaning closer to him. He leaned towards and kissed me, his hands around me and mine around his neck. We leaned into each other and his hands moved up my back and I pushed closer to him until I was on top of him and we made out for ten minutes and then England ruined by calling. "Ugh." I moaned getting up off the ground and looking at the caller ID, "It's England." I answered it and the first thing he said was "Where are you are you okay is Prussia there, he better not be I swear if you were doing kinky stuff I'll kill him." He ranted for five minutes until he said "Please come home, I'm sorry I yelled I just wanted to make sure you were okay." I sighed and said "Fine I'll come home, I'll be there in like twenty." He said okay and I hung up. Now I'm no bad girl but I'm not very obedient so I meant it when I said twenty minutes the thing is it takes five minutes to get back. I turned to Prussia who was pouting and said "Ah don't worry we have fifteen minutes." He smiled and leaned towards me and I leaned towards him.

* Timeskip sorry if that was bad detail I've never kissed and have never really written a romance so heheh have fun telling me how bad it sucked*

After Prussia dropped me off at the house I had a talk with England about the whole I can date who ever I want and of course he pouted yet agreed in the end.

2 weeks later not that it's a lot I mean there immortal

Prussia and Ireland were officially dating much to England's dismay and Americas mysterious illness disappeared a week after that... yet nobody knows what was wrong with him. I mean everyone knows nations don't just get sick out of no where right?

So that's the end of my one shot there maybe more later down the road but please keep the flames down and enjoy the sequel named "In the long run. See ya guys maybe soon. **
